

If someone gave you a million dollars, what would you do with it?

When we bring up the word "money" what kind of feelings come to mind?

What is the difference between needing money and having an unhealthy obsession with it? How can you tell when you have moved to an unhealthy obsession?

Read 1 Timothy 6:10

What are the griefs that come from an unhealthy love of money?

Are there changes you need to make in your attitude towards money? If so, what?

Wanting money isn't bad. But there are some things money can't do. What are some things that money can't buy? How might that change the way you view money?

What are some things you are doing right now to earn money? How can you be responsible with the money you have? (Leader's note: depending on the demographics of your group and the different grade levels represented, this question may be asked and answered differently. You may start with the question "When you get your first job how can you...")
