

AT THE MOVIES

Enchanted

What are some unrealistic ideas about love students get from movies or social media?

Which version of love do you think people struggle with more: fake fairytale love or guarded self-protective love?

Have you ever had someone consistently show up for you even when it cost them something?

Read 1 John 3:16-18 together. What stands out about how the Bible defines love?

Why is sacrificial love harder than emotional or “feel good” love?

Why do painful experiences sometimes make people afraid to trust others or trust God?

What does Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross teach us about real love?

What’s one relationship where you could show more Christlike love this week?
